

BIG SALES NEWS.

Aut inveniam viam, aut faciam.

LOUISA, LAWRENCE COUNTY, KENTUCKY, MARCH 17, 1893.

M. F. CONLEY, Publisher

VOL. VIII. NO. 29.

NEWS ITEMS.

Mat Carter, aged 17, and Miss Jennie Pierce, aged 15, of Lancaster, Ky., eloped to be married.

Henry Clay Nelson, medical inspector United States navy, retired, died at Concord, N. H., Friday.

Billy Delaney will train Corbett for the Mitchell fight. Corbett expects to weigh in at 185 pounds.

Swift Holben, the English long-distance champion cyclist, is to swim across the English channel.

The corner at Coalton, O., has decided that the Tom Corwin mine disaster reflects blame on no one.

The Order of Ohio, a mutual benefit organization, has gone into liquidation. Its home is at East Liverpool, O.

Konrad Stjernfeldt, son of Earl XV, late king of Sweden, was married in Chicago to Miss Kathinka Peterson.

Maximum limit of corporation in Pennsylvania was increased by the legislature to $50,000,000 from $10,000,000.

Secretary Gresham has appointed Mr. H. G. Bryan private secretary, a position he filled under the administration of Secretary Bayard.

Col. Orrey Taft, a famous hotel proprietor, died Wednesday in Boston. He served birds and fish to all the noted statesmen in the episcopate in the country.

J. T. Mook, of Danville, Ky., has sold to J. T. Chambers, of Dubois, Ind., Miami, bay filly, 3 years old, by Minnie dam Fan, dam of Eminence, $10,000.

Arrangements for another shooting match are likely to be made between John L. Brewer and E. D. Fink. The match will be at 200 yards for $250 a side.

The conservatives have unanimously decided to move, as an amendment to the motion for the reading of the home rule bill, that it be read six months hence.

All the doctors in Washington and vicinity are exceedingly busy night and day attending patients who become sick on inauguration day. There are thousands of victims.

William Gardner, said to have been the oldest mason in the United States, died at Portland, Ore., aged 97. He arrived there from Kansas City, Mo., only a few months ago.

The Chinese government disputes the Russian version of the Peking protocol of 1884, and has ordered its minister in St. Petersburg to maintain unyielding China's position.

A destructive fire occurred Thursday at Danville, Tenn., which destroyed houses, the depot, express and telegraph office and large school building were destroyed. The losses aggregate many thousands of dollars.

The counterfeiters, John Webb and Madison Weaver, were arrested by United States Marshal Stalder, at Parkersburg, W. Va., have been held to answer. Webb waived examination, but Weaver stood trial.

The Milwaukee and Northern railroad, which the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul will be consolidated. The Michigan senate has passed a bill amending the law, whereby such a consolidation may take place.

A surveying force has been put in the field to locate a new railroad from Morrisport to Embury, Tenn. Work on the new line will commence June 1. This road will be an extension of the Morrisport and Cumberland Gap road.

The O. & M. has withdrawn from the agreement to maintain rates agreed upon by the Central Trust association, and a meeting will be held in Cincinnati Monday to patch up matters before the association falls utterly by the wayside.

The executive board of District Assembly No. 3, of L. Pittsburg, Pa., met and elected worthy Foreman Frank Vincent master workman, in place of Hugh F. Dempsey, who was convicted of poisoning non-union men at Homestead.

The first resignation accepted by Secretary Carlisle is that of Deputy controller of the Currency Nixon, of Indiana. Mr. Nixon refused to resign at the request of Secretary Foster in order to prevent the latter from filling his place.

Dr. Chanton, the corner of Chester, received a letter Thursday from New Orleans, saying that a man named Jones had confessed the murder of the game-keeper in Chelsea, for which an innocent man named Bloss had been hanged.

The Armour Packing Co. has been incorporated under the laws of New Jersey with a capital of $7,500,000. The company proposes to do business in that state and throughout the United States and Europe, with its principal office in Jersey City.

Attorney General Stockton, of Trenton, N. J., has officially pronounced the parochial school bill unconstitutional, on the ground that it provides for the appropriation of public money to private corporations. This opinion will probably kill the bill.

Ephraim Young, a director of the defunct Spring Garden national bank, Philadelphia, has been found guilty in the United States district court of conspiracy with President Kennedy and the cashier, and with embezzling the funds of the corporation.

Influenza is cutting a wide swath in the ranks of those New Yorkers who went to Washington to see President Cleveland inaugurated. Already four prominent politicians have died as the result of exposure while on parade in the capital, and many are ill.

At Rochester, N. Y., Archie Brock, aged 5, was killed by a train car. His head was nearly severed and his brains scattered over the track. No blame is attached to any one.

Senator Johnson's insurance bill which had advanced to third reading in the Illinois legislature, and threatened to abolish all the mutual benefit fraternities in that state, is "as dead as a door nail."

Gov. Seny, of Oklahoma, has signed the anti-gambling bill. It is the most rigid of any in existence and goes into effect in thirty days. Gov. Seny and Chief Justice Green pronounce it unconstitutional.

A statement published in New York says that a New Yorker, has paid $27,000 in a lump for the use of the curtains at the different theaters in Chicago during the World's fair. He proposes to paint on each curtain a space eight feet square, and put advertisements in the space.

Fear that the Oklahoma legislature would amend the divorce laws and make it more difficult to secure a separation, has caused a great rush of divorce cases in the courts there lately.

The judge Lawrence granted six months in one day, and now cases are filed daily.

A BIG STRIKE.

It is said it will be there in a few days.

CINCINNATI, March 14.—There are several strikers in Cincinnati who have, for the past few days, been advertising for all kinds of railroad men. The hands offered are wanted for Chicago and the information is that the reported peaceful outcome of the employees dispute there is not authentic and is in fact used as a blind to the real situation.

Among the agents employed to come here for the purpose of gathering men to be used in an emergency is Emory Warner, who is said to represent the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad Co. Mr. Warner is stopping in room 4 of the Des Moines house, and is registered according to Danvers, O.

A few days since a man thought to be Warner called at the public employment office at 46 West Eighth street. He said he was in the employ of J. C. Wright, of the Chicago and Northwestern, and that he wanted all the railroad hands he could get.

Mr. Warner was seen by a reporter on Monday morning, but he refused to state for whom he was working, and was silent on all points relating to himself.

It is certain that he is making a strong endeavor to get together all the railroad hands possible.

Mr. Warner was seen by a reporter on Monday morning, but he refused to state for whom he was working, and was silent on all points relating to himself.

It is certain that he is making a strong endeavor to get together all the railroad hands possible.

Mr. Warner was seen by a reporter on Monday morning, but he refused to state for whom he was working, and was silent on all points relating to himself.

It is certain that he is making a strong endeavor to get together all the railroad hands possible.

Mr. Warner was seen by a reporter on Monday morning, but he refused to state for whom he was working, and was silent on all points relating to himself.

It is certain that he is making a strong endeavor to get together all the railroad hands possible.

Mr. Warner was seen by a reporter on Monday morning, but he refused to state for whom he was working, and was silent on all points relating to himself.

It is certain that he is making a strong endeavor to get together all the railroad hands possible.

Mr. Warner was seen by a reporter on Monday morning, but he refused to state for whom he was working, and was silent on all points relating to himself.

It is certain that he is making a strong endeavor to get together all the railroad hands possible.

Mr. Warner was seen by a reporter on Monday morning, but he refused to state for whom he was working, and was silent on all points relating to himself.

It is certain that he is making a strong endeavor to get together all the railroad hands possible.

Mr. Warner was seen by a reporter on Monday morning, but he refused to state for whom he was working, and was silent on all points relating to himself.

It is certain that he is making a strong endeavor to get together all the railroad hands possible.

Mr. Warner was seen by a reporter on Monday morning, but he refused to state for whom he was working, and was silent on all points relating to himself.

It is certain that he is making a strong endeavor to get together all the railroad hands possible.

Mr. Warner was seen by a reporter on Monday morning, but he refused to state for whom he was working, and was silent on all points relating to himself.

It is certain that he is making a strong endeavor to get together all the railroad hands possible.

Mr. Warner was seen by a reporter on Monday morning, but he refused to state for whom he was working, and was silent on all points relating to himself.

It is certain that he is making a strong endeavor to get together all the railroad hands possible.

Mr. Warner was seen by a reporter on Monday morning, but he refused to state for whom he was working, and was silent on all points relating to himself.

It is certain that he is making a strong endeavor to get together all the railroad hands possible.

Mr. Warner was seen by a reporter on Monday morning, but he refused to state for whom he was working, and was silent on all points relating to himself.

It is certain that he is making a strong endeavor to get together all the railroad hands possible.

Mr. Warner was seen by a reporter on Monday morning, but he refused to state for whom he was working, and was silent on all points relating to himself.

It is certain that he is making a strong endeavor to get together all the railroad hands possible.

Mr. Warner was seen by a reporter on Monday morning, but he refused to state for whom he was working, and was silent on all points relating to himself.

It is certain that he is making a strong endeavor to get together all the railroad hands possible.

Mr. Warner was seen by a reporter on Monday morning, but he refused to state for whom he was working, and was silent on all points relating to himself.

It is certain that he is making a strong endeavor to get together all the railroad hands possible.

Mr. Warner was seen by a reporter on Monday morning, but he refused to state for whom he was working, and was silent on all points relating to himself.

It is certain that he is making a strong endeavor to get together all the railroad hands possible.

Mr. Warner was seen by a reporter on Monday morning, but he refused to state for whom he was working, and was silent on all points relating to himself.

It is certain that he is making a strong endeavor to get together all the railroad hands possible.

Mr. Warner was seen by a reporter on Monday morning, but he refused to state for whom he was working, and was silent on all points relating to himself.

THE BIG FIRE.

Dense Clouds of Spray, Steam and Smoke.

CHICAGO, March 14.—There are several strikers in Cincinnati who have, for the past few days, been advertising for all kinds of railroad men. The hands offered are wanted for Chicago and the information is that the reported peaceful outcome of the employees dispute there is not authentic and is in fact used as a blind to the real situation.

Among the agents employed to come here for the purpose of gathering men to be used in an emergency is Emory Warner, who is said to represent the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad Co. Mr. Warner is stopping in room 4 of the Des Moines house, and is registered according to Danvers, O.

A few days since a man thought to be Warner called at the public employment office at 46 West Eighth street. He said he was in the employ of J. C. Wright, of the Chicago and Northwestern, and that he wanted all the railroad hands he could get.

Mr. Warner was seen by a reporter on Monday morning, but he refused to state for whom he was working, and was silent on all points relating to himself.

It is certain that he is making a strong endeavor to get together all the railroad hands possible.

Mr. Warner was seen by a reporter on Monday morning, but he refused to state for whom he was working, and was silent on all points relating to himself.

It is certain that he is making a strong endeavor to get together all the railroad hands possible.

Mr. Warner was seen by a reporter on Monday morning, but he refused to state for whom he was working, and was silent on all points relating to himself.

It is certain that he is making a strong endeavor to get together all the railroad hands possible.

Mr. Warner was seen by a reporter on Monday morning, but he refused to state for whom he was working, and was silent on all points relating to himself.

It is certain that he is making a strong endeavor to get together all the railroad hands possible.

Mr. Warner was seen by a reporter on Monday morning, but he refused to state for whom he was working, and was silent on all points relating to himself.

It is certain that he is making a strong endeavor to get together all the railroad hands possible.

Mr. Warner was seen by a reporter on Monday morning, but he refused to state for whom he was working, and was silent on all points relating to himself.

It is certain that he is making a strong endeavor to get together all the railroad hands possible.

Mr. Warner was seen by a reporter on Monday morning, but he refused to state for whom he was working, and was silent on all points relating to himself.

It is certain that he is making a strong endeavor to get together all the railroad hands possible.

Mr. Warner was seen by a reporter on Monday morning, but he refused to state for whom he was working, and was silent on all points relating to himself.

It is certain that he is making a strong endeavor to get together all the railroad hands possible.

Mr. Warner was seen by a reporter on Monday morning, but he refused to state for whom he was working, and was silent on all points relating to himself.

It is certain that he is making a strong endeavor to get together all the railroad hands possible.

Mr. Warner was seen by a reporter on Monday morning, but he refused to state for whom he was working, and was silent on all points relating to himself.

It is certain that he is making a strong endeavor to get together all the railroad hands possible.

Mr. Warner was seen by a reporter on Monday morning, but he refused to state for whom he was working, and was silent on all points relating to himself.

It is certain that he is making a strong endeavor to get together all the railroad hands possible.

Mr. Warner was seen by a reporter on Monday morning, but he refused to state for whom he was working, and was silent on all points relating to himself.

It is certain that he is making a strong endeavor to get together all the railroad hands possible.

Mr. Warner was seen by a reporter on Monday morning, but he refused to state for whom he was working, and was silent on all points relating to himself.

It is certain that he is making a strong endeavor to get together all the railroad hands possible.

Mr. Warner was seen by a reporter on Monday morning, but he refused to state for whom he was working, and was silent on all points relating to himself.

It is certain that he is making a strong endeavor to get together all the railroad hands possible.

Mr. Warner was seen by a reporter on Monday morning, but he refused to state for whom he was working, and was silent on all points relating to himself.

It is certain that he is making a strong endeavor to get together all the railroad hands possible.

Mr. Warner was seen by a reporter on Monday morning, but he refused to state for whom he was working, and was silent on all points relating to himself.

It is certain that he is making a strong endeavor to get together all the railroad hands possible.

Mr. Warner was seen by a reporter on Monday morning, but he refused to state for whom he was working, and was silent on all points relating to himself.

It is certain that he is making a strong endeavor to get together all the railroad hands possible.

Mr. Warner was seen by a reporter on Monday morning, but he refused to state for whom he was working, and was silent on all points relating to himself.

It is certain that he is making a strong endeavor to get together all the railroad hands possible.

Mr. Warner was seen by a reporter on Monday morning, but he refused to state for whom he was working, and was silent on all points relating to himself.

RETRIBUTION.

A Son Shoots His Father's Assassin in the Back.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., March 14.—One of the most sensational shootings in the history of Nashville occurred here Monday in the courthouse. Thomas Jones, a young man, shot J. J. Winters down, the latter was standing by the side of his wife along the hallway leading from the criminal court-room. As Winters fell his wife dropped upon her knees by his side, crying hysterically. "Tom Jones has killed my husband," Jones first five shots, at his victim. Three of them took effect, and the result will probably be fatal. James Bondurant, who was standing near where the shooting occurred, was struck in the right groin by one of the bullets which missed Winters, and was dangerously wounded.

J. J. Winters and his brother Andrew had just succeeded, through their attorneys, in having the cases in which they were indicted in the criminal court for the assassination of Jones' father, postponed until the next term of court, and J. J. Winters, with his wife, was passing out of the court room, when young Jones followed and shot him down.

The killing of Monday is the last act in a tragedy which was begun June 1 last. On that day the Winters brothers, Andrew and Joe, men of about forty-five and fifty-two years respectively, were in the court room for the assassination of Jones' father, postponed until the next term of court, and J. J. Winters, with his wife, was passing out of the court room, when young Jones followed and shot him down.

The killing of Monday is the last act in a tragedy which was begun June 1 last. On that day the Winters brothers, Andrew and Joe, men of about forty-five and fifty-two years respectively, were in the court room for the assassination of Jones' father, postponed until the next term of court, and J. J. Winters, with his wife, was passing out of the court room, when young Jones followed and shot him down.

The killing of Monday is the last act in a tragedy which was begun June 1 last. On that day the Winters brothers, Andrew and Joe, men of about forty-five and fifty-two years respectively, were in the court room for the assassination of Jones' father, postponed until the next term of court, and J. J. Winters, with his wife, was passing out of the court room, when young Jones followed and shot him down.

The killing of Monday is the last act in a tragedy which was begun June 1 last. On that day the Winters brothers, Andrew and Joe, men of about forty-five and fifty-two years respectively, were in the court room for the assassination of Jones' father, postponed until the next term of court, and J. J. Winters, with his wife, was passing out of the court room, when young Jones followed and shot him down.

The killing of Monday is the last act in a tragedy which was begun June 1 last. On that day the Winters brothers, Andrew and Joe, men of about forty-five and fifty-two years respectively, were in the court room for the assassination of Jones' father, postponed until the next term of court, and J. J. Winters, with his wife, was passing out of the court room, when young Jones followed and shot him down.

The killing of Monday is the last act in a tragedy which was begun June 1 last. On that day the Winters brothers, Andrew and Joe, men of about forty-five and fifty-two years respectively, were in the court room for the assassination of Jones' father, postponed until the next term of court, and J. J. Winters, with his wife, was passing out of the court room, when young Jones followed and shot him down.

The killing of Monday is the last act in a tragedy which was begun June 1 last. On that day the Winters brothers, Andrew and Joe, men of about forty-five and fifty-two years respectively, were in the court room for the assassination of Jones' father, postponed until the next term of court, and J. J. Winters, with his wife, was passing out of the court room, when young Jones followed and shot him down.

The killing of Monday is the last act in a tragedy which was begun June 1 last. On that day the Winters brothers, Andrew and Joe, men of about forty-five and fifty-two years respectively, were in the court room for the assassination of Jones' father, postponed until the next term of court, and J. J. Winters, with his wife, was passing out of the court room, when young Jones followed and shot him down.

The killing of Monday is the last act in a tragedy which was begun June 1 last. On that day the Winters brothers, Andrew and Joe, men of about forty-five and fifty-two years respectively, were in the court room for the assassination of Jones' father, postponed until the next term of court, and J. J. Winters, with his wife, was passing out of the court room, when young Jones followed and shot him down.

The killing of Monday is the last act in a tragedy which was begun June 1 last. On that day the Winters brothers, Andrew and Joe, men of about forty-five and fifty-two years respectively, were in the court room for the assassination of Jones' father, postponed until the next term of court, and J. J. Winters, with his wife, was passing out of the court room, when young Jones followed and shot him down.

The killing of Monday is the last act in a tragedy which was begun June 1 last. On that day the Winters brothers, Andrew and Joe, men of about forty-five and fifty-two years respectively, were in the court room for the assassination of Jones' father, postponed until the next term of court, and J. J. Winters, with his wife, was passing out of the court room, when young Jones followed and shot him down.

The killing of Monday is the last act in a tragedy which was begun June 1 last. On that day the Winters brothers, Andrew and Joe, men of about forty-five and fifty-two years respectively, were in the court room for the assassination of Jones' father, postponed until the next term of court, and J. J. Winters, with his wife, was passing out of the court room, when young Jones followed and shot him down.

The killing of Monday is the last act in a tragedy which was begun June 1 last. On that day the Winters brothers, Andrew and Joe, men of about forty-five and fifty-two years respectively, were in the court room for the assassination of Jones' father, postponed until the next term of court, and J. J. Winters, with his wife, was passing out of the court room, when young Jones followed and shot him down.

The killing of Monday is the last act in a tragedy which was begun June 1 last. On that day the Winters brothers, Andrew and Joe, men of about forty-five and fifty-two years respectively, were in the court room for the assassination of Jones' father, postponed until the next term of court, and J. J. Winters, with his wife, was passing out of the court room, when young Jones followed and shot him down.

The killing of Monday is the last act in a tragedy which was begun June 1 last. On that day the Winters brothers, Andrew and Joe, men of about forty-five and fifty-two years respectively, were in the court room for the assassination of Jones' father, postponed until the next term of court, and J. J. Winters, with his wife, was passing out of the court room, when young Jones followed and shot him down.

The killing of Monday is the last act in a tragedy which was begun June 1 last. On that day the Winters brothers, Andrew and Joe, men of about forty-five and fifty-two years respectively, were in the court room for the assassination of Jones' father, postponed until the next term of court, and J. J. Winters, with his wife, was passing out of the court room, when young Jones followed and shot him down.

The killing of Monday is the last act in a tragedy which was begun June 1 last. On that day the Winters brothers, Andrew and Joe, men of about forty-five and fifty-two years respectively, were in the court room for the assassination of Jones' father, postponed until the next term of court, and J. J. Winters, with his wife, was passing out of the court room, when young Jones followed and shot him down.

The killing of Monday is the last act in a tragedy which was begun June 1 last. On that day the Winters brothers, Andrew and Joe, men of about forty-five and fifty-two years respectively, were in the court room for the assassination of Jones' father, postponed until the next term of court, and J. J. Winters, with his wife, was passing out of the court room, when young Jones followed and shot him down.

The killing of Monday is the last act in a tragedy which was begun June 1 last. On that day the Winters brothers, Andrew and Joe, men of about forty-five and fifty-two years respectively, were in the court room for the assassination of Jones' father, postponed until the next term of court, and J. J. Winters, with his wife, was passing out of the court room, when young Jones followed and shot him down.

The killing of Monday is the last act in a tragedy which was begun June 1 last. On that day the Winters brothers, Andrew and Joe, men of about forty-five and fifty-two years respectively, were in the court room for the assassination of Jones' father, postponed until the next term of court, and J. J. Winters, with his wife, was passing out of the court room, when young Jones followed and shot him down.

The killing of Monday is the last act in a tragedy which was begun June 1 last. On that day the Winters brothers, Andrew and Joe, men of about forty-five and fifty-two years respectively, were in the court room for the assassination of Jones' father, postponed until the next term of court, and J. J. Winters, with his wife, was passing out of the court room, when young Jones followed and shot him down.

The killing of Monday is the last act in a tragedy which was begun June 1 last. On that day the Winters brothers, Andrew and Joe, men of about forty-five and fifty-two years respectively, were in the court room for the assassination of Jones' father, postponed until the next term of court, and J. J. Winters, with his wife, was passing out of the court room, when young Jones followed and shot him down.

The killing of Monday is the last act in a tragedy which was begun June 1 last. On that day the Winters brothers, Andrew and Joe, men of about forty-five and fifty-two years respectively, were in the court room for the assassination of Jones' father, postponed until the next term of court, and J. J. Winters, with his wife, was passing out of the court room, when young Jones followed and shot him down.

The killing of Monday is the last act in a tragedy which was begun June 1 last. On that day the Winters brothers, Andrew and Joe, men of about forty-five and fifty-two years respectively, were in the court room for the assassination of Jones' father, postponed until the next term of court, and J. J. Winters, with his wife, was passing out of the court room, when young Jones followed and shot him down.

The killing of Monday is the last act in a tragedy which was begun June 1 last. On that day the Winters brothers, Andrew and Joe, men of about forty-five and fifty-two years respectively, were in the court room for the assassination of Jones' father, postponed until the next term of court, and J. J. Winters, with his wife, was passing out of the court room, when young Jones followed and shot him down.

The killing of Monday is the last act in a tragedy which was begun June 1 last. On that day the Winters brothers, Andrew and Joe, men of about forty-five and fifty-two years respectively, were in the court room for the assassination of Jones' father, postponed until the next term of court, and J. J. Winters, with his wife, was passing out of the court room, when young Jones followed and shot him down.

The killing of Monday is the last act in a tragedy which was begun June 1 last. On that day the Winters brothers, Andrew and Joe, men of about forty-five and fifty-two years respectively, were in the court room for the assassination of Jones' father, postponed until the next term of court, and J. J. Winters, with his wife, was passing out of the court room, when young Jones followed and shot him down.

The killing of Monday is the last act in a tragedy which was begun June 1 last. On that day the Winters brothers, Andrew and Joe, men of about forty-five and fifty-two years respectively, were in the court room for the assassination of Jones' father, postponed until the next term of court, and J. J. Winters, with his wife, was passing out of the court room, when young Jones followed and shot him down.

The killing of Monday is the last act in a tragedy which was begun June 1 last. On that day the Winters brothers, Andrew and Joe, men of about forty-five and fifty-two years respectively, were in the court room for the assassination of Jones' father, postponed until the next term of court, and J. J. Winters, with his wife, was passing out of the court room, when young Jones followed and shot him down.

The killing of Monday is the last act in a tragedy which was begun June 1 last. On that day the Winters brothers, Andrew and Joe, men of about forty-five and fifty-two years respectively, were in the court room for the assassination of Jones' father, postponed until the next term of court, and J. J. Winters, with his wife, was passing out of the court room, when young Jones followed and shot him down.

The killing of Monday is the last act in a tragedy which was begun June 1 last. On that day the Winters brothers, Andrew and Joe, men of about forty-five and fifty-two years respectively, were in the court room for the assassination of Jones' father, postponed until the next term of court, and J. J. Winters, with his wife, was passing out of the court room, when young Jones followed and shot him down.

The killing of Monday is the last act in a tragedy which was begun June 1 last. On that day the Winters brothers, Andrew and Joe, men of about forty-five and fifty-two years respectively, were in the court room for the assassination of Jones' father, postponed until the next term of court, and J. J. Winters, with his wife, was passing out of the court room, when young Jones followed and shot him down.

The killing of Monday is the last act in a tragedy which was begun June 1 last. On that day the Winters brothers, Andrew and Joe, men of about forty-five and fifty-two years respectively, were in the court room for the assassination of Jones' father, postponed until the next term of court, and J. J. Winters, with his wife, was passing out of the court room, when young Jones followed and shot him down.

The killing of Monday is the last act in a tragedy which was begun June 1 last. On that day the Winters brothers, Andrew and Joe, men of about forty-five and fifty-two years respectively, were in the court room for the assassination of Jones' father, postponed until the next term of court, and J. J. Winters, with his wife, was passing out of the court room, when young Jones followed and shot him down.

The killing of Monday is the last act in a tragedy which was begun June 1 last. On that day the Winters brothers, Andrew and Joe, men of about forty-five and fifty-two years respectively, were in the court room for the assassination of Jones' father, postponed until the next term of court, and J. J. Winters, with his wife, was passing out of the court room, when young Jones followed and shot him down.

The killing of Monday is the last act in a tragedy which was begun June 1 last. On that day the Winters brothers, Andrew and Joe, men of about forty-five and fifty-two years respectively, were in the court room for the assassination of Jones' father, postponed until the next term of court, and J. J. Winters, with his wife, was passing out of the court room, when young Jones followed and shot him down.

The killing of Monday is the last act in a tragedy which was begun June 1 last. On that day the Winters brothers, Andrew and Joe, men of about forty-five and fifty-two years respectively, were in the court room for the assassination of Jones' father, postponed until the next term of court, and J. J. Winters, with his wife, was passing out of the court room, when young Jones followed and shot him down.

The killing

BIG SANDY NEWS.

Entered at the post office at Louisville, Ky., second-class matter.

Published every Friday by—

M. F. CONLEY,

EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR

TERMS—$1.00 per year in advance

OFFICE—Old Clerk's Office Building,
LOUISIANA, KENTUCKY.

Advertisements: rates furnished on application

FRIDAY, MARCH 17, 1893.

It is reported from Budapest that Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria is to soon abdicate in favor of his brother, Archduke Charles Louis.

Gov. Brown yesterday named Col. John F. Hager and Prof. Willbur Smith as the two extra World's Fair Commissioners provided for in the bill recently passed.

Fire in the center of Boston's mercantile district last Friday afternoon destroyed over a square of fine new buildings and caused a loss of about $1,500,000. Two lives were lost and at least thirty people were injured during the progress of the fire.

The Republican newspapers continue to express their exalted approval of Mr. Cleveland's inaugural address. The crumbs of comfort dropped them, during his reference to civil service reform, appear to have had a very soothing effect.—Frankfort Capital.

The Board of Lady Managers of the World's Fair are laying plans for the distribution of 40,000 twenty-five cent souvenir coins, the issue of which was authorized by Congress some time ago in honor of the women of this country and in recognition of the work done by the women of the board. It is thought the coins will be ready for distribution May 1.

The Kansas Legislature passed a ballot bill, with an amendment added by the Republicans, prohibiting the appointment of judges of election from any party that "fused" with another party at the preceding election. It is a sort of force bill aimed at the Democrats, and will place the control of the election machinery in the hands of Republicans and Populists.

The President is said to be considering the question of sending a non-partisan commission to Hawaii to investigate the affairs of the islands and the annexation movement. The commission is to have power to summon witnesses, take evidence and institute a thorough examination of the financial status of the kingdom, its laws, habits of the people, etc. The time necessary for the work, it is said, will be three or four months.

The Senate at Frankfort Friday did the largest day's work of the winter. With a bare quorum present, nearly a dozen bills of more or less importance were passed. Among them were: The bill closing barber shops on Sunday, that on jury challenges, the chapter on "Evidence," the measure fixing the duties, qualifications, salaries, etc., of future Secretaries of State, the chapter on "Constables," and the bill appropriating $10,000 as a contingent fund, to be used if necessary in the prevention of epidemics.

Ralph Davis, elected Speaker of the Tennessee House last January, has since been debarred from practice as a lawyer in the courts at Memphis for improper practices, and failing to resign the Speakership, the House, by a vote of 72 to 8, removed him from that position and elected Mr. Trousdale to succeed him. Davis, who is a young man, has been four times elected to the House; is very bright, and until this disgrace fell upon him, was considered a rising man in the politics of Tennessee. He is a Jew.

"President Cleveland," says a prominent physician, "differs from the majority of corrupt men in one respect. He does not appear to have a lazy bone in his body. Ordinarily a man of Mr. Cleveland's proportions is fond of his ease and possesses a sluggish temperament. Mr. Cleveland seems to reveal in work as is evinced by his turning out at 7 o'clock in the morning and remaining at his desk until long after midnight. No one can accuse the President of laziness. But he is very foolish to go contrary to all the laws of health as he has done. I will venture to say that not one man in a thousand could have safely risked the exposure Mr. Cleveland had subjected himself to on the day of his inauguration. To medical men his remaining uncovered for any length of time in a raging blizzard was a foolhardy act. The strongest constitution will break down under such treatment. Mr. Cleveland has arrived at a time of life when it behooves him to be careful of his health."

We are now prepared to give you job printing on short notice.

The gossip of the capital who like an administration for the pleasure there is in it for them have doubtless been wondering why social considerations have been so much ignored. Why are there to be no big cabinet banquets? Well, perhaps there are, but it must be confessed that on the surface there is no sign of one. Nevertheless, fashion must not frown on Mr. Cleveland as if he were its enemy. It should recall the first cabinet, and remember with deep gratitude the gracious and abundant hospitality of the Bayards, the Endicotts, the Whitneys, and the Fairchilds. Mr. Cleveland is not unwilling that his cabinet should give feasts and dances, but he chooses his associates for their capacity for carrying on the business of the administration. Society will flourish whether or not the cabinet helps along the enjoyment, but there is no reason, under our Constitution and with our republican view, why poor men should be debarred from the cabinet, or why the country should not enjoy the services of an able man whose polite education had been unfortunately neglected. The graces of life are good, and Washington will have them notwithstanding the cabinet, but it is not essential to the transaction of the public business that the Secretary of State should be able to furnish sumptuous entertainments for the idlers of the capital, or that he should add to his diplomacy a nice taste for terrapin and Burgundy.—Harpers Weekly.

Financier Foster.

Louisville Times: Four years ago the Republican party threatened to abolish the internal revenue tax on whisky and tobacco, rather than reduce the protective duties. Yesterday Mr. Foster turned over an empty treasury to Mr. Carlisle, with the apologetic plaint that "Congress should have increased the whisky tariff fifty cents, and given us a chance to replenish our stock." Calico Charley will not go into history alongside of Necker, Hamilton, Gallatin and Chase.

Read This Young Man.

Perhaps the truest and wisest words ever said by Commissioner Rusk were uttered with his pen when he wrote: "I say understandingly, that the young men of our country who will bring to agriculture the education and intelligence, the industry and perseverance essential to success in every other career, whether mercantile, industrial or professional, will, in the course of the next twenty years, attain a far greater degree of well doing and well being than on the average awaits them in any other calling."

And yet many young men who consider themselves reasonably or unreasonably smart, would rather wear out their lives and their pants at $20 per month behind the counter than to breathe the pure air of heaven behind a plow at $20 per year.

Less than one cent is the value of the raw material in a violin.

More than one-third of Great Britain is owned by members of the House of Lords.

The United States produced 10,000,000 gallons more wine last year than Germany did.

PROSPERITY.

Born, to the wife of Daniel Berry, a fine boy.

Died, recently, a little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jeal Jordan. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved parents.

Married, a few days ago, Hiram Jordan, Jr., to Miss Susan Lemons. We wish them a long and successful life.

Miss Virgie and Lillie Burton, paid Little Blaine a visit Friday.

Since Berry, of Louisville, has traded his house and lot for a farm on Birch Creek, owned by M. G. Berry, who will soon be a resident of your place, it seems like there is a great deal of changing and moving in our neighborhood this year.

Our select School, taught by L. T. Moore closed last Friday.

J. W. Curran makes frequent visits to Springfield. There must be some attraction.

Esther Short, of Bossia, was visiting her brother Orsaw Moore, of Rich Creek, on the 12th.

Wiley Burchett, of Deep Hole, was on our streets recently.

Mrs. Eliza Jane York is visiting friends and relatives at Louisville this week.

T. S. Thompson is progressing nicely in studying his legal profession. We wish him success, as he is a bright and promising young man.

We would like to see a letter from "Saag Digger," again.

"CITIZEN."

Try Spencer's best flour, you will then use no other.

Ladies who want the highest grade of face powder should try Freeman's. For sale at Conley's.

Watches at greatly reduced prices at M. F. Conley's.

WALBRIDGE, KY.

Dear Editor: As I haven't wrote a letter to the News in sometime, I thought that I would write a few items.

Mr. Harry McClure gave supper in honor of Cleveland, because the Democrats was in power once more on the 4th.

Mr. J. A. Watterson has quit his saving for a few weeks.

Mr. William Chapman of South-ardsville is visiting Mr. Watterson this week.

W. S. Chapman, of Three Mile, has moved to Gallip. He says that he likes his new home very much.

W. M. Chapman was calling on his best girl Sunday. Come again Bill.

We are glad to say that Miss Willie Burgess who has been on the sick list for some time, is improving.

Miss Kittie Doston, of Walbridge, was visiting her sister at Torch Light Sunday.

Success to the News.

OLD HICKORY.

OAK HILL, ARK.

Dear News:—As Cleveland is elected and the Republicans must go and perhaps never be in power again, the Egyptian bondage is, I trust forever ended.

Arkansas will come out of the kinks sometime. Carpet-Baggers are no more. Powell Clayton is turned to be an iron horse.

We have had an unusually cold winter for this country, but not a great deal of snow.

Times are looking up. 4th and 5th of March clear, as Cleveland is in the White House where he ought to be. The Republicans here are "chewed up and spit out." Their dying spasms can be heard in all corners of the land.

We hope they never will enter into power again and steal the people's money.

We know the Democrats have crushed every other party that has come against it in the long run. Truth, honor and justice crushed into the earth will rise again in spite of corruption.

I have gained my health beyond all expectation since I came here. Had a hard spell of pneumonia last Nov. but feel as well as before.

Our corn crop was short here last year. Wheat, oats and gardens were pretty good. Corn now 50 cts, wheat 50 cts, bacon 15 cts, lard 15 cts, beans 6 cts per lb.

A great deal of stock has been sold in our country this fall, winter and spring at a high price. The crop of Democrats was fine. So let us shake!

I. N. HASTE.

ADAMS, KY.

Married on the 8th of Dec. 1892, at the residence of James M. Berry, Mr. Henry E. McKinster, of Grayson, Ky., to Miss Arsula Thompson, of Adams, Ky. They went horse-back to Webbville, and took the train to Paducah, Ky., where they will make their future home in the future.

Also, married March 4th, 1893, Mr. W. H. C. Thompson to Miss Genette Graham, on Cherokee, in this county, by the writer.

The death angel visited the home of B. Z. and Labitha Jordan, on Rich creek, on the 25th day of February last, and took from their kind embrace little Golda, who had only been with them for about seven months. She died with croup, very suddenly, and was interred in the Moor graveyard on Little Blaine to sleep there until awakened by the trumpet of God. How many mothers would have the wheels of time reversed to have their loved ones back again, if it were possible? But let us remember that all things work together for good to them that love and fear the Lord. May the good Lord comfort the young father and mother in this sad bereavement.

W. H. C. MCKINSTER.

KINNER, KY.

Not seeing anything from this place for some time we thought we would give you a few items.

S. G. Curran made a flying trip to Fallsburg, last week.

Miss Leota Burk is preparing to go to Greenup Co., on an extended visit.

Jay Frasier spent Sunday with friends at this place.

Wm. Cooksey, of Fallsburg, spent part of last Sunday with his best friend at this place.

Cabe Sparks went to Fallsburg, recently.

Crab Apple Blossom and other choice perfumes at Conley's.

Ming Kee Chop tea at Yates', 80c per pound. Try it.

Highest price paid for corn at Louisa Mills.

Bring us your chickens, butter and eggs. If you don't want groceries we will pay you cash.

SULLIVAN & KIRK.

EAST FORK, KY.

Mr. "Puddin'" Shannon, of Louisa, made a flying trip to this place last Saturday.

Billy Riffe, who had his arm amputated, is progressing nicely, and will soon be able to be out again.

Miss Nellie Riffe is attending school at Fallsburg.

Joe Harless made our little town a pleasant call last Sunday.

E. Lockwood and Dr. Sparks, while out riding, were thrown to the ground by the mule bucking. Eph fell on a stump, and it is thought, broke one of his ribs. Dr. Bevin, of Denton, is attending him.

James K. Brooks, the Mayor of Needmore, is talking of going west. Sorry to lose you James. You had better consider Ky. a good state and stay with us.

Buren Shortridge and Bill Howell, two Mt. Sterling stock merchants passed through this place last week on the hunt of cattle.

Samuel Dowdy, of Catsfork, Ky., gave Uncle Isaac Belcher a pleasant call last Sunday.

Miss Dora Barrett has just returned from Fallsburg, where she has been visiting for the past few days.

A series of meetings just closed at this place Thursday night, conducted by Revs. Bevin and Switzer. We hope that the meeting has accomplished much good.

Johnny Riffe gave John Pol Hamus a call last week.

Married, on East Fork, Ky., March 10th, at the bride's residence, Van Shortridge to Miss St. Albright. May your journey through life be long and happy, is the wish of your humble scribe.

SANKY.

CATLETTSBURG, KY.

Mr. Editor, as I am a reader of the BIG SANDY NEWS, and also one of the Lawrence county boys, I thought I would write a few lines to your interesting paper. Business is pretty lively here. Timber is still coming in.

Rev. Tom Miller preached for the people at Hampton City, last Thursday night. They want him to come again.

L. F. Smith is still here.

John Davis is singing "happy day." It's a girl.

W. F. Black and wife are still improving.

James Miller is still working at the tan yard. He said he was the boss tanner.

As this is my first letter to your paper, I will not write but little. Where is Slip, of Little Blaine. Tell him to write again, and give all the news of Little Blaine. I would like to see a letter from there.

W. M. M.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS
Cures indigestion, biliousness, dyspepsia, malaria, nervousness, and general debility. Physicists recommend it. All dealers sell it. Contains no alcohol and does not red on the wrapper.

AN ATTRACTIVE "POCKET ALMANAC"
Combined with BROWN'S IRON BITTERS the best Food and Blood Purifier and general tonic. Apply at once.

R. E. LEE,
Contractor & Painter.

Estimates furnished on Work in any part of the country. Send plans and specifications and get estimate free. Address—

R. E. LEE,

Sheriff's Sale.
By virtue of execution No. 1073 and 1075, directed to me, which issued from the Clerk's office of the Lawrence Circuit Court, one in favor of A. J. and P. H. Loe against C. D. Norris and M. Freese, and the other in favor of Sturgill and J. J. Jordan against M. Freese, I, one of my deputies will on Monday, the 20th day of March, 1893, between the hours of 10 o'clock a. m. and 4 o'clock p. m., at the court house door in Louisa, Lawrence county, Ky., expose to public sale, to the highest bidder, the following property, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy plaintiff's debt, interest and costs to wit: The property known as the Louisa Flouring Mill situated in Louisa, Ky., beginning at corner of Pike Alley and the county line, thence with said alley, 233 ft. to the line of the Ohio & Big Sandy R. V. Co. line, thence with said line, 75 ft. to the county road, 146 feet from the beginning, and thence with the county road to the beginning. Said sale to be subject to two mortgages executed by M. Freese on May 16, 1892, one to C. Geell, and the other to Geo. N. Brown, levied upon as the property of M. Freese. TERMS—Sale will be made on a credit of three months, the amount ordered to be made is $501.74.

A. J. WILSON, S. L. C.

C. M. TURLEY, JAY A. VINSON,
TURLEY & VINSON,
ATTORNEYS AT LAW,
Logan, W. Va.

All kinds of legal business promptly attended to.

COLLECTIONS A SPECIALTY.

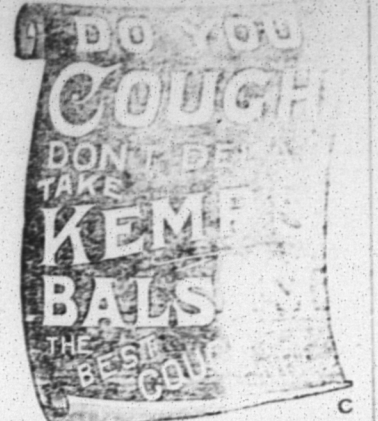

ENGINES AND BOILERS.
Our Specialty:

All sizes and styles—Stock of 200 Always on hand—Also, Saw Mills, Corn Mills, Thrashing Engines, Brick Machines, Pumps, Etc., Etc.

Catalogue Free.

D. K. NORTON & SON,
Cincinnati, Ohio

WE TRADE MACHINERY.

Crutcher & Ferguson keep the best fresh meats always on hand. Next door to Spencer's store.

Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure at Druggists.

Stewart & Stewart,
Attorneys and Counsellors at Law,
LOUISA, KY.

C. M. CRUTCHER & CO.
UNDERTAKERS.

COFFINS of All Grades
From the Finest
Zinc Lined Caskets
of the Cheapest grade of Cheap Coffins.

Burial Robes, Patent Slippers, Trimmings, Linings, Bed clothes, Name-plates, Screens, every description of Undertaker's Supplies.

Jas. H. O'BRIEN is connected with this establishment.
LOUISA, KY., Up stairs over Snyder Bros.

MARLIN SAFETY
REPEATING RIFLES
Made in all styles and sizes. Lightest, strongest, easiest working, safest, simplest, most accurate, most compact, and most modern. For sale by all dealers in arms. Catalogue mailed free by
The Marlin Fire Arms Co.,
New Haven, Conn., U. S. A.

Sheriff's Sale for Taxes.
On Monday, March 20, 1893, I or one of my deputies will offer for sale at public auction to the highest bidder the following property, for cash in hand, to satisfy taxes held against it as indicated: Miles Skaggs, adjoining J. J. Skaggs, 50 acres of land, tax of 1890-91-92. 106 acres of land adjoining W. S. Chapman, taken as the property of Allen Thornhill for tax of 1891-92. Robt. Thornhill, 15 acres of land adjoining W. S. Chapman, tax of 1891-92. Mrs. Tennie C. Hutchinson, 25 acres of land adjoining S. R. Vinson, tax of 1891-92. Helen T. Headley, 30 acres of land adjoining Fred Ash, on the waters of Lick creek, taxes for 1890-91. Mrs. Mary E. Mareum and W. W. Mareum, one house and lot in Louisa, at foot of Town Hill for taxes 1890-92. A. J. WILSON, S. L. C.

Collector's Sale.
On Monday, March 20, 1893, I will offer for sale at public auction, at the court house door in Louisa, Ky., 100 acres of land adjoining Tool Workman, on Tug river, for school taxes of 1891 and 1892 against Serilda Herald.

J. L. DIAMOND,
Collector.

Good tea at 20c per pound at Yates.

St. Vitus' Dance cured by Dr. Miles' Nervine.

WORMS!
WHITE'S CREAM VERMIFUGE
FOR 20 YEARS
Has led all Worm Remedies.
EVERY BOTTLE GUARANTEED.
SOLD EVERYWHERE.
Prepared by H. H. HARRISON, TAYLOR BROS. CO., ST. LOUIS.

DR. G. W. WROTON,
PHYSICIAN and SURGEON
Offers his services to the people of Louisa and vicinity.
ry's Drugstore.

DR. G. W. WROTON,
PHYSICIAN and SURGEON
Offers his services to the people of Louisa and vicinity.
ry's Drugstore.

DR. G. W. WROTON,
PHYSICIAN and SURGEON
Offers his services to the people of Louisa and vicinity.
ry's Drugstore.

DR. G. W. WROTON,
PHYSICIAN and SURGEON
Offers his services to the people of Louisa and vicinity.
ry's Drugstore.

DR. G. W. WROTON,
PHYSICIAN and SURGEON
Offers his services to the people of Louisa and vicinity.
ry's Drugstore.

DR. G. W. WROTON,
PHYSICIAN and SURGEON
Offers his services to the people of Louisa and vicinity.
ry's Drugstore.

DR. G. W. WROTON,
PHYSICIAN and SURGEON
Offers his services to the people of Louisa and vicinity.
ry's Drugstore.

DR. G. W. WROTON,
PHYSICIAN and SURGEON
Offers his services to the people of Louisa and vicinity.
ry's Drugstore.

DR. G. W. WROTON,
PHYSICIAN and SURGEON
Offers his services to the people of Louisa and vicinity.
ry's Drugstore.

DR. G. W. WROTON,
PHYSICIAN and SURGEON
Offers his services to the people of Louisa and vicinity.
ry's Drugstore.

DR. G. W. WROTON,
PHYSICIAN and SURGEON
Offers his services to the people of Louisa and vicinity.
ry's Drugstore.

DR. G. W. WROTON,
PHYSICIAN and SURGEON
Offers his services to the people of Louisa and vicinity.
ry's Drugstore.

DR. G. W. WROTON,
PHYSICIAN and SURGEON
Offers his services to the people of Louisa and vicinity.
ry's Drugstore.

DR. G. W. WROTON,
PHYSICIAN and SURGEON
Offers his services to the people of Louisa and vicinity.
ry's Drugstore.

We Make
A Specialty
Of

JOB PRINTING

Prices
The Lowest.
Work
Guaranteed.

The public is aware of the fact that F. H. Yates keeps the neatest store in Eastern Kentucky—not an exception. And

"CLEANLINESS IS NEXT TO GODLINESS."

this is not all. He also keeps in stock a nice line of fresh groceries, direct from the eastern market. Exceedingly Low Price

For Sale By
M. F. CONLEY,
LOUISA, KY.

5 TON SCALES $60
Beam Scale Tare Beam
Send for Terms

JONES OF BINGHAMTON
N. Y.
HE PAYS THE FREIGHT

Public Notice is hereby given:

That the undersigned as corporations, have signed and acknowledged Articles of Incorporation, and organized a corporation under the name of the Torchlight Coal Company, and that Louisa, Lawrence County, Kentucky, is the principal business office, and that Torchlight, in Lawrence County, Kentucky, is the principal place of transacting business.

2. The general nature of the business proposed to be transacted is to purchase and sell real estate, coal, iron, timber, staves, ores and minerals; to work metals and mine coals under purchase, lease or royalty; bore for natural gas, salt or oil; to sell, lease or exchange metals, minerals, coal, iron, timber, gas, oil, salt and real estate; and to carry on the general business of mining and traffic in such mines, lands, coal, ore, timber, staves, oil, salt and gas, and buy and sell merchandise, and ship and transport its general products.

3. The amount of the capital stock authorized is fifty thousand dollars, which shall be divided into five hundred shares of one hundred dollars ($100) each, to be paid at such times and upon such conditions as the Board of Directors may prescribe.

4. The Corporation shall begin on the 15th day of February, 1893, and continue twenty-five (25) years from that date, unless sooner dissolved by an affirmative vote of two thirds of its capital stock, but may be renewed in the manner provided in Chapter 56 of the General Statutes of the State of Kentucky.

5. The affairs of the Corporation shall be conducted by a Board of five (5) Directors, a President, Superintendent, Secretary and Treasurer, to be elected from the Board; one of such members may at the same time hold one or more of the said offices. The officers are to be elected at the annual meeting of stockholders at the office of the company on the fourth Wednesday of March in each year.

The highest amount of indebtedness or liability to which the Corporation can at any time subject itself shall not exceed two-thirds of its capital stock. Private property of the stockholders is to be exempt from corporate debts.

Given under hands this 15th day of February, 1893.

W. H. ROWE, JR.
JOHN P. ROWE,
JAY H. NORTON,
R. E. VINSON,
R. H. ROSE,
F. T. WALLACE.

DR. G. W. WROTON,
PHYSICIAN and SURGEON
Offers his services to the people of Louisa and vicinity.
ry's Drugstore.

DR. G. W. WROTON,
PHYSICIAN and SURGEON
Offers his services to the people of Louisa and vicinity.
ry's Drugstore.

DR. G. W. WROTON,
PHYSICIAN and SURGEON
Offers his services to the people of Louisa and vicinity.
ry's Drugstore.

DR. G. W. WROTON,
PHYSICIAN and SURGEON
Offers his services to the people of Louisa and vicinity.
ry's Drugstore.

DR. G. W. WROTON,
PHYSICIAN and SURGEON
Offers his services to the people of Louisa and vicinity.
ry's Drugstore.

DR. G. W. WROTON,
PHYSICIAN and SURGEON
Offers his services to the people of Louisa and vicinity.
ry's Drugstore.

DR. G. W. WROTON,
PHYSICIAN and SURGEON
Offers his services to the people of Louisa and vicinity.
ry's Drugstore.

DR. G. W. WROTON,
PHYSICIAN and SURGEON
Offers his services to the people of Louisa and vicinity.
ry's Drugstore.

DR. G. W. WROTON,
PHYSICIAN and SURGEON
Offers his services to the people of Louisa and vicinity.
ry's Drugstore.

BIG SALLY NEWS.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 17, 1893.

Wagon at Louisa Mills.
G. W. Little is in Washington, D. C.

Onions at Spencer's at $4.50 per barrel.

Col. Northup is at White House, this week.

Spencer $3.50 flour is a dandy, for the money.

Fresh bread every week at Sullivan & Kise.

First class hay at lowest prices, Louisa Mills. (If.)

F. L. Stewart is in Cincinnati buying goods.

Wm. Moore, of Blaine, was in town this week.

Farmer Henry Jenkins was in town Wednesday.

Mr. A. P. Borders is improving; we are glad to say.

Jay A. Vinson, of Logan, W. Va., Sundayed in Louisa.

A new stock of jewelry received this week at Conley's.

Mr. I. Davis returned from a trip to Cincinnati Tuesday.

The public schools will close on the 24th of this month.

Rev. C. H. Williamson was a Louisa visitor last week.

Mrs. Geo. Resder's sister, of Ashland, visited her Sunday.

Best No. 1 Timothy hay at Louisa Mills at lowest prices.

Wm. H. Bartram was a business visitor to this city Monday.

Do not fail to buy a barrel of onions for $4.50 at Spencer's.

See and Burk have sold their grocery business to J. F. Dixon.

A. Lon Borders was calling on his many friends in this city Monday.

Tintypes and photos enlarged at Jones Photo gallery. Also, framing.

The dredge boat has arrived and has already done considerable work.

Have your house painted by R. E. Lee—the best work at the lowest prices.

Look at Borders & Stewart's samples of Spring suitings before ordering a suit.

Constable Josh Diamond was a business visitor to Walbridge the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Lackey visited the former parents at Staley, Boyd county, last week.

Thos. R. Brown and family have been the guests of Alexander Lackey for the past week.

Crutcher & Co. keep all prices and styles of collars, cuffs, and furnishings, at low prices.

A. M. Hughes is opening his stock of drugs and will be ready for business in a few days.

If you want a watch or case now is the time to buy it. Conley is offering special prices this month.

M. S. Burns has purchased of J. F. Dixon, his house and lot on Madison street, consideration $700.00.

Misses Mary and Martha McClure were visitors at the Hotel Brunswick during the last week.

Henry Detmar, merchant tailor of Ironton, was in this city Wednesday, interviewing his customers.

Deputy Sheriff Marion Stone has moved his family into the residence recently vacated by Sheriff Wilson.

The News office is turning out the neatest of job work at absolutely the lowest prices in the market.

Remember that C. M. Crutcher & Co. keep the largest stock and variety of Undertaker's goods to be found in this section.

Prof. C. B. Stuart requests us to announce that he will not open school at Flat Gap on April 3, as has been stated heretofore.

John Carlisle, who built the O. & B. S. R'y., and opened the Peach Orchard mines, passed up Tuesday on route for Peach Orchard.

The enterprising firm of Atkins, Burchett and Ratcliff have been making some large shipments to up river points during the last few days.

The wife of Hart Nunnally was adjudged a lunatic by the Police Court Monday, and Sam Bussey was appointed to take her to the Asylum at Lexington.

Try Blue Ribbon or Old Gold flour. They are high grades and cannot be beaten. Put up in sacks or barrels. Prices the lowest. Quality guaranteed. Made at Louisa Mills. (If.)

The marriage of Miss Fannie Moore to Mr. L. J. Webb, occurred on last Wednesday. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, who reside on Blaine. They left immediately for Webbville, their future home.

Abstract of City Council Proceedings.

Present Chm. Snyder, O'Brien, McHenry, Spencer and Atkins. Ordinance passed forbidding any one to ride or drive on any public or private sidewalk within the corporate limits. This applies especially to the walk recently built down the lane.

License tax on wholesale liquor dealers reduced from one hundred and fifty to one hundred dollars per annum, with privilege of taking out license for fractional part of year until January 1st, 1894.

Police Judge Rice filed settlements with Snicker's Gap claimants, including disbursement of amount realized from the three hundred and fifty dollar town bond.

Order drawn on treasurer for $16, in favor of Dr. Banfield for interest on his $200 bond. Improvement committee reported progress.

Special tax was laid on many things for 1893, including circuses, billiard and pool tables, theatrical shows, pedlars and auctioneers. Performances by home talent, when given for religious or charitable purposes, are exempt.

William Justice wanted pay for hog killed by other hogs in stray pen. Laid over one month.

The question of dog tax was also laid over.

Our friend O. S. Horton has grown in stature and increased in feelings until his most intimate friends have difficulty in recognizing him. He has not been appointed to office, neither has he fallen heir to a large estate in England, but at 6 a. m., last Friday he was informed that he was the father of a boy who kicked the beam at ten and a quarter pounds. Mother and child are doing very well indeed, but Lou Johnson and Henry Ferguson, who have the father in charge, express grave doubts of their ability to pull him through.

William O'Brien, of Walbridge, will sell by auction Wednesday, March 22nd, a lot of household goods, one mare, three cows and other stock. Purchases of $5 and under, cash. Over this amount 4 months credit—bond and security. Sale will begin at 2 p. m.

Bascom Hale carries the mail from the depot to the postoffice, at $86 per annum. Boys who interfere with him along the road may be prosecuted for delaying the United States mail.

W. T. Headley left Wednesday for Morrisstown. He expects to bring out his family for a visit next Summer.

A daily mail has been established between Louisa and Glenwood. The new schedule begins next Monday.

We understand some parties have been here negotiating for the purchase of the flouring mill.

Mr. and Mrs. Westlake, formerly Miss Daisy Atkins, are visiting home folks at this place.

Mrs. Tom McClure is improving rapidly and will be able to be out in a few days.

Wm. Justice is painting his residence, and otherwise improving his property.

R. T. Burns and F. T. D. Wallace have had their iron fences painted this week.

T. S. Thompson is studying law in the office of Stewart & Stewart.

Mrs. D. C. Spencer is visiting at Georges creek this week.

Rev. M. W. Hiner will preach at Fallsburg Friday night.

W. M. Schmucker is visiting relatives in this vicinity.

Mrs. J. E. Stewart is still confined to her room.

Frank Jones has been ailing the past few days.

MOUNT PLEASANT.

Mr. Parsons, of your town, began his Sunday school the first Sunday in March.

John C. Burchett and George Frasher have gone to Pike county.

We expect a wedding soon, as James W. Elman, expresses a strong dislike to single cussedness.

Labe Simpson has rented the Fien Burchett farm.

Emmett Duval has rented the John Burchett place.

Jordan Cox speaks of opening another butcher shop. B. & S.

CHEROKEE, Ky.

A. T. Cooper and family left here last week for Ohio, where they will make their home in the future.

Stauben Graham has moved his saw mill to Webbville.

We learn that J. H. Wheeler is soon to be granted a pension of fifteen hundred dollars.

F. H. Moore has a full line of new goods.

Jay Northup Graham has been very sick for some days, but is now improving.

Jim Graham made a flying trip up Cherokee Sunday.

Success to the News.

JUMBO.

Improved Michigan and N. Y. Seed Potatoes at Spencer's.

Spencer's New Bread takes well.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

Circuit Court is in session at Pikeville.

Ex-Congressman Joe M. Kendall, of Morgan, Co. is an applicant for the Persian Mission.

J. M. Staton and S. Riddle have purchased the interest of H. H. Salyards in the Pikeville Monitor; and the publication will be continued by them as an independent sheet. The Monitor, it will be remembered, during the last campaign advocated the election of the Republican candidates for Congress and Circuit Judge in its district, although it was owned by a Democratic corporation, which had leased to Salyards with the understanding that it would be run as a Democratic paper. Mr. Salyards will remain in Pikeville for some time to attend to legal complication arising from its change in the politics during the campaign.

The Pikeville Monitor says:—Mr. L. M. Fisk, of the firm of Alfred White, of Cincinnati, arrived here by steamer on Wednesday of last week with the much-talked-of monument and statue of Octavia, the deceased wife of our townsman, Mr. James Hatcher. On Friday Mr. Fisk went to work and placed the monument and statue in position. The base stone is of granite and of a rustic design 4 feet square and 1 1/2 feet high; the second base is polished granite 2 feet square and 15 inches high; the dye is 4 feet 6 inches high and of polished granite. The statue is of Italian marble and life size, 5 feet 5 inches, the whole being a little over 13 feet in height, and costing, Mr. Fisk informs us, about $1,650.

Ham Stafford was shot from ambush one day last week while working for J. A. Hughes & Co. near the of Breeding, in Logan county, the ball went through the jaw knocking several teeth, but is not dangerous.

Ham Stafford was shot from ambush one day last week while working for J. A. Hughes & Co. near the mouth of Breeding, in Logan county. The ball went through the jaw knocking several teeth out, but is not dangerous.

Democrats and ex Confederate soldiers in Lincoln county have cause to feel proud of at least one thing. The keeper of the poorhouse reports that during the last fourteen years there have been only two Democrats in that institution, and that during the whole time there has never been a Confederate soldier or a member of a Confederate family there. Somehow or other, and it's a little strange, too, the old rebel soldiers seem to get along without pensions from their Government, State or county. If the survivors of the other side were so fortunately constituted the new Secretary of the Treasury would not be confronted with such a serious problem.

VESSIE, Ky.

We believe we spoke about the mud before.

Maudie Handley is very low with Bronchitis, but we are glad to say is some better at present.

Charley Barrett has been down for some time with ague, but is getting along all right now.

Miss Dora Barnett was visiting in Louisa, last week; also at Fallsburg, and says she had a lovely time.

We would like to know who wrote that tale about Uncle Billy Taylor running amuck a Wild Cat. The old fellow is now able to be around again.

Tom Barrett holds to his big black steer, and says he has concluded to keep him another year, and therefore get the growth of him. A good idea Tommy.

We cannot boast of good roads, nor big mills, nor level land, nor railroads, but there is one thing we are proud of and like to boast of, that is our young men. They are gentlemanly in appearance and conduct themselves as such. They are typical mountain boys, tall athletic, and above all, they are good looking—or in other words we'll say pretty, and can prove our assertion by any young lady who knows them.

Our protracted meeting closed last Friday night on account of the roads being so terribly muddy.

Dr. Sparks lost his ring while feeding last week. He said it was a plain gold ring and he has looked over a ten acre field for it, and has at last concluded it floated off. He is willing to pay the finder a trifle to bring it to his house, and no question asked. Saw him looking on the creek below J. L. Neal's mill. The doctor has our sympathy.

Success to the News is the wish of

We will have 40 barrels of flour in this week. Parrelly takes the lead.

Spencer sells flour from $3.50 to $3.25 per barrel.

All kinds of onion sets at Spencer's.

H. O. SULLIVAN,

Attorney at Law,

LOUISA, KENTUCKY.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

SEED TICK.

Yes Sir, I said the roads were very muddy and if any of "ye" don't believe it, just watch Brice with his huckster wagon and be convinced.

Wm. Stewart, Jr., arrived with a large drove of cattle Tuesday. He has been out several days buying them.

John Queen has gone to Greenup to look at a farm which is for sale at that place.

The store at this place was moved away Thursday, and the genial, whole-souled clerk, Mr. Clate Jackson, is working on his splendid farm.

Henry Fannin has drawn out of the huckster business, and Baddie will go it alone now.

Our County Commissioner is building him a neat little office and preparing to "whoop" up things generally this summer. He says if he don't do any thing else, he will talk about the roads and keep huckstering to hold the price up. So good for Bud.

Oh! but it sounds so nice to hear our new choir sing the good old songs. Prof. Boyd has done a great deal of good here by teaching the singing school. Pierce will see to the school till Mr. Boyd returns from Tennessee, which will be in April.

HORSEFORD.

Not seeing any news from this vicinity for some time, thought a few items from this place would probably interest some of the readers of your valuable paper.

The mild weather, the merry singing of the birds and the general stir among the farmers, all indicate the approach of the "beautiful spring time."

Mr. Jeff. Collinsworth, from Pike, made a pleasant call at this place recently and are we mistaken when we say? We heard some one longing for the "roses to come again."

W. M. Shortridge passed through here Sunday with quite a drove of "Plug Horses" enroute to Cat's Fork.

W. M. Cooksey, of Fallsburg, was smiling on friends at Catalpa, on Sunday last, so says "Burg."

Bob. Skeens contemplates a visit to Rowan county, Ky., when he has finished his plowing.

Andrew Layne is lying at the point of death with consumption.

George Ramey who has been visiting friends and relatives of this vicinity, returned to his home in Minnesota, last week.

Our long expected protracted meeting will begin at this place the first Sunday in April. Rev. Leslie will conduct the services.

Messrs. Fred Kinner and Ben Burke were out on the branch yesterday prospecting.

On last Sunday, Jay Bird Frasher returned from Fallsburg, looking very sad and in a state of despondency, and on inquiring the cause, he replied that "Lilly had left school."

Dr. J. W. Berry, of Quincy, visited Mrs. Skeens last week.

Success to the News. Echo.

LICK CREEK.

Miss Fannie Wellman and Jim Akers, who have been attending school at Wayne, W. Va., spent Saturday and Sunday with home folks.

Frank McClure passed through our vicinity Monday, enroute to Louisa.

Mr. Jim Dixon and wife, of Charley, Ky., spent Sunday with home folks.

Jemison and Charley Vaughan, were snailing on their girls at this place Saturday. Come again boys.

Mr. Henry Meek and Noy Jones were visiting at Three Mile Saturday and Sunday. There must be some attraction, boys.

Thos. Branham, who has been attending school at Louisa, was visiting at John R. Chapman's Sunday.

We are glad to say that Mrs. J. R. Chapman is improving.

Mr. Bascom Muncy, of Smoke Valley, spent Sunday with his friends at this place. We all gladly welcome Mr. Muncy, with a hearty hand-shake. Sophia says come again, Bascom.

W. D. Shannon called on his best girl at Torchlight, Sunday evening.

We are still hoping and trusting that the weddings will soon occur, as we have been informed that there are to be several in the near future.

Success to the News is the wish of

We will have 40 barrels of flour in this week. Parrelly takes the lead.

Spencer sells flour from $3.50 to $3.25 per barrel.

All kinds of onion sets at Spencer's.

UNPREDICTABLE CURIOSITY.

Van Ischling Coyne—I offered my wife a penny for her thoughts and it was one of the best I ever offered.

Kirby Stone—How did that happen?

Van Ischling Coyne—She was thinking of getting a new tailor-made suit.

Puck.

Bound to be Around.

First Boy—Whenever there's a pleasure of two lovers, there's always a lot of little boys around with wings. Wo's they for?

Second Boy—I guess, they is her little brothers what's dead.—Good News.

Sullivan & Kise sells more flour than any two stores in town.

PERSONAL AND LITERARY.

—Richard Owen, who died in England with the old year, had a scientific career which dated back to the days of George IV. He ranked with Darwin as a scientific thinker and worker. As long ago as 1820 he was known all over Europe as a leading student of comparative anatomy.

—Dr. Nansen's projected arctic journey is probably the most hazardous undertaking ever planned by man. He hopes to cross the Polar sea carried by the current that brought some of the wreckage of the "Jeannette" back to the borders of the civilized world. Nansen's equipment will be the most complete ever planned for a similar expedition.

—There are about twenty large public libraries in Asia. The Royal Asiatic society library in Bombay has 80,000 volumes, besides a large collection of Sanscrit and Persian manuscripts. The Tiflis library, established in 1846, contains 25,000 volumes, and annually receives 15,000 rubles from the Russian government for the purchase of books in Asia Minor, Persia, etc.

—Mrs. Louie McLendon Gordon, who in part represents the state of Georgia at the World's fair, is president of a literary club in Atlanta, and has written letters of travel to the press. She is actively engaged in charitable work, organized and private; and at the recent meeting of the Southern Baptist convention in Birmingham she delivered an address on "African Missions."

—Prince Poniatowski, who was recently reported engaged to an American girl, is a modest youth. His income, he declares, is $25,000 a year. This is sufficient for his own wants, and he adds that he can not think of marrying and taking on the expense of an establishment unless the girl who seeks the social position he can give her is able to bring $50,000 a year to the common fund.

—Andre Azeneure, once a celebrated cook, died in Paris some time ago at the age of ninety-five. When he was still a child he entered the kitchens of Blucher, of which he became the head cook before he was quite eighteen. He was maitre d'hotel at M. de Talleyrand's in 1825. Afterward he entered the kitchens of Louis Philippe, where he remained in the capacity of chef until the revolution of 1848, when he retired to the house in which he died. He contributed a number of recipes to the book of Alexandre Dumas.

—Mrs. Levi P. Morton is a woman of great social and domestic talent and is the center of admiration in any circle of which she forms a part. She was formerly Miss Street, daughter of a prominent citizen of Philadelphia, and has been Mrs. Morton for twenty years. Her family consists of five daughters, whose ages range from nine to eighteen, and to them she is a most devoted mother. She is constantly with them, and supervises all their occupations. In addition to her brilliant entertainments, where one meets the choicest society, Mrs. Morton contrives to find time for reading all the best of the new publications, and is a most careful housekeeper.

1893.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE

ILLUSTRATED.

HUMOROUS.

—Young Writer—"What do you think is the best feature in the play I sent you?" Manager—"The fact that it was typewritten."—Washington Star.

—Teacher—"In the sentence, 'The sick boy loves his medicine,' what part of speech is 'loves'?" Johnny—"It's a lie, mum."—Pharmaceutical Era.

—Her Maiden Name.—Mrs. Pigs—"Wasn't Mrs. Bigmoney a parvenu when you first knew her?" Mr. P.—"No, she was a Miss Smith."—Detroit Free Press.

—"So you have finished your college course, Jack. Was it very hard work for you?" "Not out of the way. It was for my tutor, though."—Braloe's Magazine.

—Driven to Drink—"What makes you so thirsty to-day, old fellow?" "I had to stick one of those dunced large Columbian stamps on the letter my wife gave me to mail."—Puck.

—Not the Same.—Mrs. Parent—"Bobby, Bobby, you ought not to laugh because that poor old lady fell down." Bobby—"I didn't, pop. I was laughing because she couldn't get up."—Truth.

—"Is your son doing well in business?" "Yes, indeed. He changes his position every week, because he says he knows all about it, and wants to learn a new branch."—R. K. & Co's Monthly.

—Annie—"Why did you refuse Mr. Spackley? I am sure the presents and flowers he sent you show him to be in love with you." Belle—"I was afraid he had spent all of his money on me already."—Vogue.

—Shortsighted She—"There, we've trudged up here on purpose to admire the beauties of nature. I've forgotten to bring a glass with me." Unpoetical He—"Never mind, we can drink out of the flask."—Wonder.

—Indulgent Papa—"Why, my dear, you had a party last month. How often do you wish to entertain your friends?" She—"This one is not to entertain my friends, papa, but to snub my enemies."—Brooklyn Life.

—The Feminine Cure-All.—On the Ocean Greyhound—Capt. Saylor—"I'm sorry to say, madame, we're delayed. The vessel's broken her shaft, ma'am."

Mrs. J. S. (sympathetically)—"Oh, dear! Can't you fix it with this hairpin?"

—Uncle Billy was commenting on a severe wind-storm that had occurred the night before. "Lor, yes, Miss Sally, dat war a powerful storm we had last night. Dat's a fact. It blowed up trees dat was never knowed to be blowed up afore."—Harper's Bazar.

—Consolation.—First Man—"Poor Miss Mannheim! Aren't you sorry for her?" Second Man—"Sorry for her, why?" First Man—"Because her engagement with Kirby is broken off, and they say he's a faithless man that he has jilted her." Second Man—"Well, I guess she can console herself with the thought that 'Tis better to have loved and lost, than never to have loved at all."—Judge.

—Unpredictable Curiosity.

Van Ischling Coyne—I offered my wife a penny for her thoughts and it was one of the best I ever offered.

Kirby Stone—How did that happen?

Van Ischling Coyne—She was thinking of getting a new tailor-made suit.

Puck.

Bound to be Around.

First Boy—Whenever there's a pleasure of two lovers, there's always a lot of little boys around with wings. Wo's they for?

Second Boy—I guess, they is her little brothers what's dead.—Good News.

